

LAND & DEVELOPMENT

Estate Agent - Services

What we do

At Thistle Estates, we specialise in the sale and acquisition of land for development, offering expertise in both land with planning permission and land with potential for future development. We help developers and investors navigate the complexities of land transactions in the West Midlands. Whether you're looking for land to build residential or commercial projects, we provide a comprehensive service that includes expert advice, strategic marketing, and in-depth knowledge of the planning process. With our extensive experience, we ensure that every land opportunity is maximized, helping you achieve the best possible outcome for your development goals.
